Thread for new info on the zoosadist horrorshow.

1. @kerothewolf misled many people that chat logs were hacked. @kothorix did a video about having him admit the logs are real, as @NosHyena comments. Then Kero retweeted the video.

> This implies that Kero misled his fans about being hacked, and lied to his fans about not being in the chat logs. This implies that there were hundreds of furs, including teenagers and kids that were covering for Kero because he was not being honest. This is of course, according to Kothorix's word.

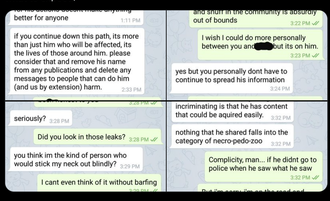
2. Here's a second example I got. I have even more not shareable because confidentiality was promised. That wasn't requested here but the ID is blacked out.

Now the defense is inconsistent (although grasping for excuses is just what to expect.)



if you continue down this path, its more than just him who will be affected, its the lives of those around him. please consider that and remove his name from any publications and delete any messages to people that can do him (and us by extension) harm.
I wish I could do more personally between you and [redacted] out its on him.
yes but you personally dont have to continue to spread his information seriously?
Did you look in those leaks?
you think im the kind of person who would stick my neck out blindly?
I cant even think of it without barfing incriminating is that he has content that could be aquired easily.
nothing that he shared falls into the category of necro-pedo-zoo
Complicity, man... if he didnt go to police when he saw what he saw

3. Imagine trying to play undercover cop for years, being implicated in the worst possible way, doing nothing with the info, messaging on self destruct timer you actively request for no record, fellow chat member pretends it was a surprise hack-

Occam's razor, the chat is real.

up to take it to the police 3:34 PM
no im learning this now because like i said, its starting to affect thise around him
And getting a cover story
I have no reason not to believe him.
ive seen nothing that would make me
But i gotta drive
If it wasnt taken to police then its on whoever knew
I just found out about all this after others brought it out, its like trying to unring a bell now Sigh. You're a sweet person as much as I know and I'm sorry I didn't give more sympathy. But I would rather lose friends than have monsters benefit from coverup. Our chat authenticates those logs, rather than the hacked story many people heard. People have been played. Whatever can be done to just

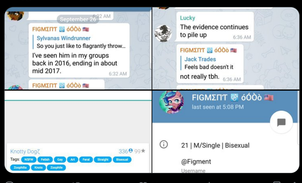
4. Here's more posts from the altfur chat. (OMG it's not about them this time, gotta look icky places for icky info)



FIGMITT 600b
Sylvenas Windrunner
So you just like to flagrantly throw...
I've seen him in my groups back in 2016, ending in about mid 2017.
Lucky
The evidence continues to pile up

5. "Hack" was suspiciously timed, no motive, astronomical work, corroboration with server logs and years-old PMs and other accounts/likes/watches, "editing" is just .jpg compression, Glowfox confirms, Kero's BF was infamous zoo, dog and bedroom in vid.
